Global Trends - Beverages

The Science of Color in Wine

Wine professionals discuss pigmentation, extraction, and how color can affect everything from appearance to ageability.
Click here to read more

Make wine great again

Is it possible to make wine the traditional way? Or are people wearing rose coloured glasses about the wines of the past?
Click here to read more

Global Trends - Wine Industry Key Elements

Is The Future Of Wine In The Can?

For years, canned wine was a non-category, over time it slowly moved into a fad, today it qualifies as a full-fledged wine category that continues to grow.
Click here to read more

Natural / Physical Resources

The Truth Of Climate Change Is Recorded By Centuries Of French Wine Harvests
For more than 600 years most harvests occurred after September 28 - early ones were the exception. Since 1988 the start date has shifted to an average of 13 days earlier, indicating much hotter conditions.
Click here to read more